FOR SPORTS AGENTS, ATHLETE BUSINESS MANAGERS AND SPORTS ATTORNEYS

Monthly books for professional athletes

A playing career pays a lot in a short window: game checks during the season, signing and performance bonuses, endorsements and appearances. We keep your clients' books every month and send a package they can read, so you and they know what came in, what's set aside for taxes in every state, and how many years the money covers.

HOW IT WORKS

1. Introduce
You introduce the athlete; we learn the contract, endorsements and entities.

2. Set up
Accounts and companies go into Baratelli Bankable.

3. Every month
We close the books and send the package to you and the athlete.

4. Every quarter
A call to walk through income, spending and taxes.

How we work

- We never move client money or pay bills on their behalf.
- The agent and business manager keep the relationship; we keep the books.
- Fees are flat monthly, agreed up front.

Good to know. Athletes owe tax in most states where they play. Tracking duty days during the season makes those state returns straightforward instead of a year-end scramble.
